Gottkennen.de

Imagine driving down the streets of your city and seeing a bus turn the corner with "There is no God" plastered across its side. Once you got over the shock, what would you do?

Some German businessmen learned that an atheist organization was sponsoring a bus tour throughout the country promoting the slogan, "Close to certainty, there is no God." They sprang into action. They chartered a bus, painted it with a counter-statement saying "And what if there is a God? ..KnowingGod.com." They approached Campus Crusade for Christ for the manpower to take it on tour, shadowing the atheist bus in 28 cities (shown below) over a period of three weeks.

The tour attracted a great deal of media coverage. As they entered each city, staff and volunteers would engage in spiritual conversation with individuals on the street and distribute materials.

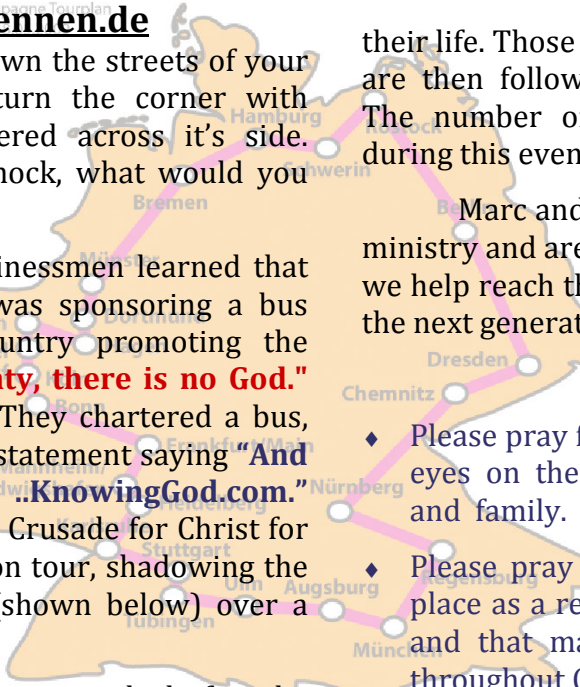

One of the main goals of the tour was to highlight Gottkennen.de (KnowingGod.com).

their life. Those who record their decision online are then followed up by Christian volunteers. The number of hits to the website doubled during this event.

Marc and I are thrilled to be a part of this ministry and are grateful for your partnership as we help reach the lost with the Gospel and build the next generation of leaders in the Church.

Prayer Request...

- ◆ Please pray for Marc and Kim as we keep our eyes on the Lord while balancing ministry and family.
- ◆ Please pray for the follow-up that is taking place as a result of this innovative campaign and that many would be drawn to Christ throughout Germany!
- ◆ Wisdom in what the next step is with our home (do we add on or move?)
- ◆ Please pray for safe travel over the Thanksgiving holiday. This is the first time in 14yrs that we've traveled during this holiday.
