

You are touching lives all around the globe through our ministry. Lives you may not even meet this side of Heaven. Thank you!

An explosion shook Afghanistan's Arghanab Valley. A stunned PVT. Jorge Obando gets comfort from SGT. Edward Rosa as he extends a cigarette and reads Psalms 91.

How did this Bible get into the hands of Sergeant Rosa? Over the last ten years, our Military Ministry (MilMin.org) has provided to our troops nearly 2,000,000 "Rapid Deployment Kits" consisting of a pocket sized Bible, a 90 day devotional, and a Gospel tract.

Directly through my work on our Ministry Development Team, working closely with our Military Ministry, the ministry provides thousands of Rapid Deployment Kits in boot camps and on the field. These resources are a great comfort to many as they face unimaginable dangers.

Back home, many soldiers returning from war (and their families) face combat trauma issues. In 2009, nearly as many soldiers have committed suicide (312) as have been killed in combat in Afghanistan (317). We provide churches near military bases with resources on ministering to military families dealing with Combat Trauma.

Haiti is still recovering from the January 12th earthquake. Campus Crusade's ministry partners have been generous in providing for humanitarian aid (food, shelter and first aid/medical teams) as well as meeting spiritual needs (to people, fed and bandaged) through the Jesus Film, short term teams, and other ways.

In March, I directed a project to communicate to over 100,000 ministry partners our progress in Haiti and how everyone who gives to Campus Crusade has played a part in bringing Haitians closer to Christ. We've enclosed a sample of the communication piece.

My co-worker, Darrell, travelled to Haiti and met Carlos, a boy, who always wanted to be a witch doctor. However, after "snooping" around our medical tents for a few weeks, he developed relationships with college students and others. Carlos has since accepted Christ as Savior and now he hopes to be a medical doctor.

You make an eternal impact in the lives of countless people, from diverse backgrounds, from nearly everywhere in the world as you faithfully partner with us through giving and praying. Thank you for touching the lives of people like Carlos, Jorge and Edward.
