

Ministry happens through circles of influence. Over this school year, I, Kim, have disciplesd 5 young ladies. I've always looked for ways to pour into my own girls. Life gives us many opportunities but I wanted to foster a group that would grow in their personal walks and learn some of the basic foundational truths of their faith NOW instead of later life. I recall my two seasons of my life that I grew foundationally in my relationship with God; High School and College. I had people who poured into me and challenged me in my walk. Now I want that for my family. The material is great! Very basic foundational facts that are true of all of us as followers of Christ. Yet unless we live these truths out, the Enemy can place doubt and questions into our minds.

These girls all come from Christian homes yet they struggle with the same questions that any new believer has. Questions like, "How do I know for sure that I'm going to Heaven?" or "I sinned will I lose my salvation?" or even "Does the Bible contradict itself?" This just excited me all the more to show them how they can grow in their OWN personal walks. I want nothing more than for young people and my own children to grow in their faith and knowledge of Jesus Christ and be able to defend their faith! The material is developed from Dr. Bill Bright's "Ten Basic Steps Toward Christian Maturity."

Soccer is another circle. Marc coaches Rachel and Juliet's soccer team. Marc has poured into the kids these past two seasons and he invited the families to join us for Easter church services. One family accepted and joined us! They really enjoyed it. After hearing their story it is evident that God has a plan for their lives.

Thanks you for your investment in our ministry! You are changing lives here and around the globe!
